Product description

Dried vegetables "włoszczyzna" are a mixture of various vegetables that are often used to prepare broths, soups and other dishes. The composition of this mixture may vary, but usually includes parsley root, celery, carrots, leeks and parsley. Włoszczyzna gives dishes a deep flavor and aroma, and at the same time provides valuable nutrients. Its presence in the kitchen is common, constituting the basis of many traditional Polish and other dishes. Thanks to the variety of ingredients, włoszczyzna enriches the taste of dishes, while constituting a healthy addition to the daily diet.

Dried włoszczyzna is a mixture of vegetables without:

- monosodium glutamate,
- preservatives,
- artificial dyes

100% natural ingredients enclosed in a 100 gram string packaging.
