Product description

Riki Taki fruit-flavoured 44 g are high-quality fruit-flavoured dragees intended for retail distribution across both modern and traditional trade channels. The product has been developed to deliver an intense, multi-layered taste experience while ensuring consistent quality across all production batches.

The dragees feature a hard, crunchy shell and a distinctive flavour profile based on carefully selected fruit combinations: apple-lemon, strawberry-orange, and blackcurrant-passion fruit. They provide a pleasant, long-lasting sensation of freshness combined with rich fruit intensity. Thanks to their compact format and functional unit packaging, the product is ideally suited for impulse purchases.
