Product description

Roasted meat seasoning is an aromatic mixture of spices, designed specifically to enhance the flavor and aroma of roasted meat. This balanced composition gives the meat a distinct taste and aroma during the baking process. Roasted meat seasoning can be used as a dry mixture for coating meat before baking, as well as an addition to marinades, sauces or glazes, creating a unique flavor combination for a roasted meat dish. Its versatility makes it a popular addition to the cuisines of various cultures around the world.

Package: 15 g.
